HAPPY BIRTHDAY, DR. SEUSS!

This Friday, March 2nd, is the NEA's Read Across America Day, a nationwide reading celebration that falls on the same day as Dr. Seuss' birthday! Honor both occasions by reading with a child, or cracking open a good book yourself! We'll be celebrating by giving out free kids books at multiple events—check out our event calendar to join in!

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Our March Volunteer of the Month is Kara Meyer! Kara has volunteered for the Reading Foundation for over four years, delivering books for our Literacy Bookshelves and Books for the Break programs. These program stocks bookshelves in the lobbies of agencies serving low-income clients with free books and get brand-new books to Title 1 Students, respectively. Kara delivers nearly 300 books to seven Literacy Bookshelf sites a month - over the years that means she's made it possible for at least 14,000 area youth to receive free books! She's dependable, easy to work with, and always wonderful to be around when she visits the SSRF office. Thanks so much for all you do, Kara!

Volunteers worked a total of 160.5 hours in the month of February, saving SSRF $4,660.92! Thanks for volunteering your time.

WELL-FED WELL-READ

Our Well-Fed, Well-Read Drive will be running April 1st–15th! Local offices and business will be collecting canned & dry food items for the food bank, and new & gently-used children's books for the SSRF! If your office or business is interested in participating, contact us at read2me@nthurston.k12.wa.us.
