BOOKS FOR THE BREAK

Help SSRF get books to local low-income and homeless kids for Fall Break! We need volunteers to deliver new books to the schools listed (right) for our Books for the Break program.

If you'd like to lend a helping hand, please contact our team at read2me@nthurston.k12.wa.us, or give us a call at (360) 412-4499 or (360) 412-4411 ext. 35002.

Books will be available for pick up at the SSRF office on Sleater Kinney Rd from 9:30-5:30 on November 13th through 15th. Books must be delivered by 9AM on Friday, November 16th. Our volunteers make this program possible!

POLAR EXPRESS

All aboard! We need volunteer help on Friday, December 7th from 4-8pm! SSRF is partnering with Barnes & Noble Olympia to put on a 'Polar Express' night at their store. Help us make this a magical experience for the children who attend to make crafts, drink cocoa, and participate in an interactive reading of The Polar Express! A percentage of all sales that night will go to the Reading Foundation. E-mail us at read2me@nthurston.k12.wa.us or call (360) 412-4411 ext. 35003 to sign up for a volunteer shift.

HOLIDAY BOOK DRIVE

In November and December, Barnes and Noble will be hosting its annual holiday book drive on behalf of SSRF! Stop in at the Olympia Barnes & Noble and purchase a book or two for the foundation. Not sure what book to get? Take a peek at our Barnes and Noble wish list here:

VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Our volunteer of the month is Matt Ferrel. Matt has spent countless hours coaching our Executive Director on Quickbooks. Because of his great work, the Reading Foundation now has a fully functioning accounting system. Thank you Matt for sharing your time and talent with us so we can better serve the children and families in our South Sound community.

Volunteers worked over 85.75 hours last month, saving SSRF an awesome $2,485.59! Thank you all so much for your hard work.
